

Index to Questions discussed by Panel

Meeting the Challenges of Stormwater Management

October 14, 2004

Question Number	Discussion begins on Page Number
1. What was your initial reaction when you saw these regulations, both the NJPDES regulations and the 7:8 stormwater management rules? Did you initially feel they were implementable? What about now?	12
2. What parts of each rule require the greatest change in how you approach stormwater management for your interest group or your jurisdiction? How long do you think it will take before these changes are fully integrated into your operations or your constituencies operations?	25
3. What aspects of stormwater management require the greatest interaction with other players? What opportunities exist for cooperative approaches? Where is the potential for conflict the greatest?	35
4. Is it reasonable to assume that our existing institutions with their existing finance capacity can get really implement these new stormwater rules? And if not, is something new needed?	48
5. Are the elected officials at the municipal and county levels ready to do what it will take to protect and restore water resources through stormwater management? What is needed to achieve realistic expectations?	65
6. What are the political costs involved in compliance? Of non-compliance?	71
7. What types of alternative funding sources are available?	78
8. Are there parts of the rules that could be changed in a way that improves their effectiveness while reducing the impact on your constituents?	88
9. Are we educating the right people in the right way about stormwater management?	97
10. Where does stormwater management in this state need to go to really protect and improve the water resources of the state?	105