

Clean Water Council of New Jersey
Public Hearing
on
“New Jersey’s Water Infrastructure”
Tuesday, October 23, 2007 at 9:00 am
@ NJDEP’s Public Hearing Room in Trenton, NJ

AGENDA

- 9:00 am Welcome from Council Chair, Pamela S. Goodwin, Esq.
- 9:10 am Opening Comments by NJDEP Commissioner Lisa Jackson
- 9:30 am Framing the Issues – Educational Presentations
- 9:35 am Water Infrastructure – National Perspectives - Focus on lessons for New Jersey from the national experience with infrastructure needs, benefits, performance standards, and asset management.
 Sheila Frace, Director of the Municipal Support Division in the Office of Wastewater Management, U.S. EPA Office of Water, Office of Wastewater Management
- 10:00 am Water Infrastructure – New Jersey Status and Trends - Challenging people to think beyond pipes and costs, to the social and environmental implications of water infrastructure. Focus on the current issues affecting New Jersey water infrastructure including water supply, wastewater and stormwater.
 Joseph Maraziti, Esq., (former Chair, State Planning Commission)
- 10:30 am Expert Panel Testimony on New Jersey Issues
- WATER INFRASTRUCTURE CHALLENGES AND IDEAS FOR SMART GROWTH
 Fletcher Platt, Executive Vice President, Hatch Mott MacDonald
 - WATER INFRASTRUCTURE CHALLENGES AND IDEAS FOR SOUND LAND USE PLANNING
 Ben Spinelli, Executive Director, State Planning Commission
 Office of Smart Growth
 - WATER INFRASTRUCTURE CHALLENGES AND IDEAS FOR ENVIRONMENTAL BENEFITS
 Robert Briant, Chairman, NJ Environmental Infrastructure Trust
 - WATER INFRASTRUCTURE CHALLENGES AND IDEAS FOR ECONOMIC VIABILITY
 Anthony Russo, Director of Regulatory Affairs, Chemistry Council of New Jersey
 - WATER UTILITIES PERSPECTIVE
 Henry Patterson, Executive Director, NJ Water Supply Authority
 - LOCAL GOVERNMENT PERSPECTIVE
 Honorable David Stout, Mayor, Cranbury, New Jersey
 - ENVIRONMENTAL PERSPECTIVE
 Paul Schwartz, National Policy Coordinator, Clean Water Action,
 Washington D.C.
- Noon Public Testimony

The Clean Water Council of New Jersey
Public Hearings