

Overburdened Communities under the New Jersey Environmental Justice Law in Robbinsville Township, Mercer County

An overburdened community is any census block group, as determined in accordance with the most recent United States Census, in which: (1) at least 35 percent of the households qualify as low-income households; (2) at least 40 percent of the residents identify as minority or as members of a State recognized tribal community; or (3) at least 40 percent of the households have limited English proficiency. Census block groups with zero population and located immediately adjacent to an OBC are labeled as “adjacent.” Existing or proposed facilities located in adjacent block groups may be required to conduct further analysis in accordance with the Environmental Justice Rules.
