[SRRA] Notice Regarding Mandatory Use of Fee and Retention DEP Online Services

The Annual Remediation Fee Form and the LSRP Notification of Retention and Dismissal Form may now be completed on-line. A notice (included below) was published in the September 17, 2012 New Jersey Register making use of the services mandatory. Due to operational constraints paper forms will be accepted up to January 18, 2013. Instructions for obtaining an account and filing the forms online can be found on the SRP forms page and directly at https://www.nj.gov/dep/srp/srra/forms/annual_remediation_fee_reporting_ins.pdf, https://www.nj.gov/dep/srp/srra/forms/lrsp_notification_retention_or_dismissal_ins.pdf. Questions about obtaining an account or completing a service online can be directed to PortalComments@dep.nj.gov.

Notice of Availability of Online Portal for the Submission of Annual Remediation Fee Reporting Form and Licensed Site Remediation Professional Notification of Retention or Dismissal Form

Take notice that the Department's online portal for the submission of the Annual Remediation Reporting Fee form and the Licensed Site Remediation Professional Notification of Retention or Dismissal form is now available. N.J.A.C. 7:26C-1.6(c) provides that:

Within 90 days after the date that the Department informs the public, by a notice in the New Jersey Register, that an electronic portal is available, the person responsible for conducting the remediation shall submit to the Department via the electronic application all forms, applications and documents required by this chapter and the Technical Requirements for Site Remediation, N.J.A.C. 7:26E electronically.

Accordingly, on December 16, 2012, all Annual Remediation Reporting Fee forms and all Licensed Site Remediation Professional Notification of Retention or Dismissal forms shall be filed electronically through NJDEP Online, <https://www.nj.gov/dep/online/>.
