[SRRA]: Announcement from the SRPL Board

Greetings!

The Site Remediation Professional Licensing Board needs your help. We are assessing the demand among unlicensed site remediation professionals to take the licensing exam during the next fiscal year (July 2013 - June 2014).

Please assist the SRPL Board by contacting associates in your firm and your professional acquaintances and asking them to contact the SRPL Board to help us put together a census of likely future examinees. Please pass this on to any individuals who may potentially be interested in:

- a. an examination between July 1, 2013 and June 30, 2014
- b. an examination between July 1, 2014 and June 30, 2015

Qualifications to take the LSRP licensing exam include eight years of full-time professional experience of which five years shall have occurred in New Jersey, and at least three years shall have occurred in New Jersey immediately prior to submission of an application. To learn more about the qualifications to become an LSRP, visit the Board's web site at www.nj.gov/lsrpboard and look for the list of qualifications under "What's New"?

Note that going forward (now that temporary LSRP licenses have been phased out), any qualified individual may take the licensing exam as many times as necessary to attain a passing score to obtain a permanent LSRP license. However, a separate application will be necessary each time the individual wishes to be admitted to the exam.

Please respond to Karen Hershey, Secretary, Site Remediation Licensing Board at SRPLBoardContact@dep.nj.gov. We would appreciate receiving your response by March 27, 2013.
