[SRRA]: Policy statement - need for LSRPs and SSEs to have an A-901 license at site remediation sites

The New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection has developed a policy to clarify the situations when Licensed Site Remediation Professionals and Certified Subsurface Evaluators do not need to have an A-901 license when overseeing remediation, as well as those situations when an A-901 license is required. The policy is available at www.nj.gov/dep/srp/guidance/#a901_license
