[SRRA]: Status of Next Licensed Site Remediation Professional (LSRP) Licensing Exam

The Site Remediation Professional Licensing Board (the Board) is currently developing the next Licensed Site Remediation Professional (LSRP) exam, with a goal of administering the LSRP exam in late Spring of 2017. Due to unforeseen contractual issues, the Board cannot yet set a date certain for administration of the LSRP exam, nor can it open the application period. Updates on the date for the LSRP exam and the application period will be provided via listserv and the Board's website at www.nj.gov/lrspboard/ under the Announcements banner on the right side of the screen. Please check this routinely. The Board regrets any inconvenience this may cause.
