[SRRA]: New Jersey Register Notice Regarding Mandatory Use of NJDEP Online Services

On February 21, 2017, the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection (Department) published a Notice in the New Jersey Register that the Remedial Action Workplan and the Remedial Action Report NJDEP Online Services are available for the submission of a Remedial Action Workplan (RAW) and Remedial Action Report (RAR). A copy of the notice is included below. This message is a follow-up reminder that in accordance with N.J.A.C. 7:26C-1.6(c), the use of these services will become mandatory 90 days from publication of the letter, or on May 22, 2017, unless otherwise instructed by the Department. The ability to submit the RAW and RAR voluntarily through the NJDEP Online Service has been available since December 9, 2016.

Instructions for obtaining an NJDEP Online account can be found at www.nj.gov/dep/online/reg_instructions_new.pdf. Instructions for filing the forms online and specific instructions for using the RAW and RAR Online Services can be found on the Site Remediation and Waste Management Program forms page at www.nj.gov/dep/srp/srra/forms.

Questions about obtaining an NJDEP Online account or completing a service online can be directed to PortalComments@dep.nj.gov.
