

Change log for UST Certified Contractor (Installation-Entire) Certification Version 2.3 to 2.4

1. Installer Certification- changed to: Certified Contractor (Installation-Entire) Certification
2. Certification that out of service USTs are properly designed and capable of being put back into use- changed to: Certification that out of service USTs are operationally compliant and capable of being put back into service.
3. Updated Chart:
 - a. Installer licensed by NJDEP changed to- UST contractor licensed by NJDEP in the Installation-Entire
 - b. Added "UST system demonstrates compliance with 1-4."
4. Signature of the UST installer certifies that the UST System and/or out of service UST system is/are properly designed and capable of being put into service- Changed to: Signature of the individual, licensed in the category of Installation-Entire, certifies that the new system was properly designed and installed; OR the out of service UST system is operationally compliant and capable of being put back into service.